“

Madagascar is the world's fourth-largest island. It is a one-of-a-kind destination. Cut off from the African mainland 165 million years ago, Madagascar evolved in isolation, leading to many unique and endemic species. The hands-down superstars of this wild performance are the endangered lemur, of which 90 percent of the surviving global population is found only here.

Madagascar is, above all, a nature destination. While there are certainly interesting man-made facets of the country — including colonial towns, native crafts, and sleepy coastal villages — Madagascar is an eco-traveller's dream. From endless jungles filled with endemic plants, rare birds, and endangered animals, to the white-sand beaches of the Malagasy islands and limestone karst formations of Tsingy, the island is an explosion of nature at each turn.

Seychelles serves up the full Indian Ocean package – blissful beaches with crystal clear waters, lush interior and rich culture.

“

马达加斯加是世界第四大岛。这是一个独一无二的目的地。1.65亿年前，马达加斯加与非洲大陆隔绝，与世隔绝地进化，形成了许多独特的本土物种。濒临灭绝的狐猴无疑是这一野生动物物种中的超级明星，全球现存的狐猴种群中有90%仅在这里生存。

马达加斯加首先是一个自然旅游胜地。虽然这个国家确实有一些有趣的人造景观——包括 城镇、本土手工艺品和宁静的沿海村庄——但马达加斯加是生态旅行者的梦想之地。从充满特有植物、珍稀鸟类和濒危动物的无尽丛林，到马达加斯加群岛的白色沙滩和 Tsingy 的石灰岩喀斯特地貌，这个岛屿处处都是大自然的爆发。

塞舌尔拥有印度洋的全部风情——迷人的海滩、清澈的海水、郁郁葱葱的内陆和丰富的文化。
