Day 3 Taichung – Kaohsiung

(Breakfast at hotel)

After breakfast proceed to

Siao gangshan, located between Gangshan and Yanchao Districts, covers 1.8 hectares of land.

Siaogangshan Skywalk Park features a 88-meter skywalk inspired by music. The cable-stayed bridge looks like a violin. Its steel cables symbolize violin strings, while the spiral staircases at the end represent a harmonica which seems to respond to the violin in a song.

Standing at the bridge, one can enjoy the beautiful birds-eye-views of Agongdian Reservoir, Agongdian Forest Park, and Agongdian River and its nearby plains. When the sky is clear, visitors can even find in the distance the magnificent North Dawu Mountain and its surrounding hills. 85 Sky Tower which is Kaohsiung's major landmark, Banping Mountain, Shoushan, and the Taiwan Strait can also be easily viewed by then.

-Moonworld Landscape Park: The special landscape is called "bad land" in geography. After years of erosion by rain and river water, the sediment is deposited on the mudstone, and the mudstone and mudstone are mixed and formed by weathering

-Buddha Memorial Hall: It is a building that integrates ancient and modern, Chinese and foreign, traditional and modern, and has the functions of culture and education, wisdom and practice.

-Meinong Folklore: Southern Taiwan is a small town rich in Hakka cultural characteristics and simple folk customs, with beautiful scenic spots and historical sites. Meinong Folk Village fully preserves the Hakka culture, and combines the local industry elites to introduce Meinong's human geography, living customs and rich tourism content.

-Zhanerku: It is a small shopping center located in Gushan District, Kaohsiung City, Taiwan. Zhaner Warehouse is part of the Gaogang Warehouse Group. It was rebuilt from the second warehouse and first warehouse of Kaohsiung Port No. 2 Wharf built during the Japanese colonial period in Taiwan. It used to provide warehouses for construction ships, passenger ships, and general cargo ships. Operation.

Day 4 Kaohsiung – Tainan

(Breakfast at hotel)

After breakfast proceed to

- Eternal Golden City: Located at the southern end of Anping District, Tainan City, it is the land of the former Erkuang, commonly known as the Fortress, which is one of the fortifications built in the late Qing Dynasty to strengthen coastal defense.
- 1661 Taiwan Ship Park: It mainly displays the antique sailing ship Taiwan Success, and combines it with public art to promote marine culture.
- Lin Mo Niang Park: There are two statues of Mazu Lin Mo Niang, one large and one small. Next to the small statues is a stone tablet of "A filial daughter becomes enlightened", the purpose is to encourage young people to learn Mazu's filial piety spirit; and the other most special Lin Mo Niang granite in the park The statue is 16 meters high and can be clearly seen from a long distance. It is a major landmark here. This statue is soft and majestic looking towards Anping Port, as if guarding the passing ships.
- Blessings of Big Fish, Tainan's new attraction: Anping's most dreamy Gangbin Historical Park
- Anping Old Street: Walking in the quiet alleys is like stepping back in time, and the intricate alleys also feel like an adventure. It would be a pity if you did not walk into the alleys when you come to Anping Old Street.
- Tainan Night Market
